HARRY MANIATAKOS

GRAPHIC / UI DESIGNER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Highly motivated, diligent, and resilient individual looking for full-time employment. Confident in my ability to communicate and build relationships with a range of customers, staff and management. Excellent problem-solver, with a proven record of prioritising tasks to achieve success. Eager to return to paid employment and contribute positively to a new team.

EXPERIENCE

YEARS [2016 - PRESENT]. |. FREELANCE PROJECTS

During one of the projects, I created a series of print-ready artworks for a vaping company. Their Sales' Manager said the products sold out the first four days instead of two weeks initially planned, selling more than a thousand pieces.

- Visual Identity design
- Print and digital content
- UI design

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

YEARS [2016 - 2018]. |. PANRAL ADVERTISING GR

During that time, I learned to work within a team, follow detailed briefs for some of the world's well known multinational corporations like Nestlé and Unilever. Furthermore, I became comfortable in managing multiple projects simultaneously while under pressure to meet strict deadlines.

- Packaging design
- Print and digital content
- Environmental design

EXTERNAL GRAPHIC DESIGNER

YEARS [2013 - 2018]. |. STILUS GR

From this collaboration I gained valuable experience as I was continually working on a diverse range of projects. Apart from that, I was also able to familiarise myself with printing methods like digital and offset, as well as how to successfully prepare files for printing.

- Layout and Print design
- Packaging design
- Brand Identity and Logo design

ACHIEVEMENTS

POSITIVE OUTCOMES FROM A GROUP PROJECT

YEAR [2019]

During a Master's course, my team and I created an immersive experience which facilitated relaxation and allowed self-directed interaction with different audible and visual cues. After a two-day exhibition, 75% of all visitors responded with the two most positive options to reflect their state of mind after 'SenseBreak'.

BRAND IDENTITY FOR A CHARITY, VOLUNTARILY

YEAR [2017]

Following a successful collaboration with a local government, I took the initiative to create their new department's brand identity, that was aiming to help homeless people in need of shelter and food.
